

ONLINE REAL ESTATE TERMS

The following are a summary of the terms for the real estate auction. Please review the terms for each property as terms can differ from property to property. This summary is in addition to the Site User terms indicated in the registration process and is provided for the convenience of the bidder. The complete terms which will govern the sale of the real estate can be found in the contract for the sale of the real estate also referred to as the BUY/SELL agreement and can be found on each property's website. Bidders should review that document prior to bidding to familiarize themselves with those terms.
